

IAFFE and the Young Scholars Initiative of the Institute of New Economic Thinking are organizing the conference's pre-conference and mentoring workshop for young scholars. The workshop will run from 13.00 to 16.30 on Wednesday, 26/6, at the conference venue at Glasgow Caledonian University. The schedule for the pre-conference is as follows:

13:00-13:15- Opening the session- welcome from IAFFE and YSI

13:15-14:15- Keynote on feminist economics by Diana Strassmann

14:30-16:30- Parallel mentoring workshops on the following themes:

- Labor market- James Heintz and Naila Kabeer
- Care economy- İpek İlkkaracan
- Inequality and development- Carmen Diana Deere and Ashwini Deshpande
- Feminist economics thought- Nancy Folbre

The goal of the mentoring workshop is to create dialog between senior feminist scholars and young/early-career/graduate student around the research projects of the latter on "what does it mean to do feminist economics / to be a feminist economist?" Each workshop will begin with a discussion of research projects of young scholars, followed by an open floor discussion between young scholars and senior scholar on the challenges and questions facing young scholars in feminist economics.

All conference attendees, young or senior, are welcome to join the workshop.
