

IAFFE conference at Oxford: 5-7 August 2004

Bina Agarwal: President IAFFE

Jane Humphries: Local host

LIST OF KEYNOTES AND PLENARIES

Keynote Speaker (dinner): Amartya Sen, Harvard University, "Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary"

Plenary 1: Feminist Theory: Looking Back, Looking Forward (organized by Jane Humphries)

Chair: Jane Humphries, All Souls College, University of Oxford, Oxford

Juliet Mitchell, Sylvia Walby, Lynne Segal

Plenary 2: Empowering Women: Property, Politics, and Privatisation (Organised by Bina Agarwal)

Chair: Bina Agarwal, IAFFE President and IEG, University of Delhi, India

Mary Rusimbi, Tanzania Gender Networking Programme, Tanzania, "Resources, Democracy and Women in Africa"

Aruna Roy, MKSS, Rajasthan, India, "The Freedom to Know: Poor Women and the Right to Information Movement in India"

Silvia Berger, Ministry of Economics and Production and National Women's council, Argentina: "Economic Policy and Women's Empowerment in Latin America"

Kamla Bhasin, Sangat, Delhi, India "Singing to Empower: Women and the Subversive Potential of Feminist Songs in South Asia"

Plenary 3: Celebrating 10 Years of our Journal Feminist Economics (organized by Diana Strassmann)

Plenary 4: Feminist Economics as a Challenge to Mainstream Economics? (organized by Bina Agarwal)

Chair: Janet Seiz, Grinnell College, USA

Bina Agarwal, University of Delhi, and IAFFE President, "The Nature of the Challenge: Some Reflections"

Diane Elson, University of Essex, "Feminist Economics as a Challenge to Micro-Economics"

Sanjay Reddy, Barnard College, "Economics and Inequality: Blindness and Insight"

Frances Woolley, Carleton University: "The Impact of Feminist Economics: Who is Listening?"